

CELLAR SELECTION

We keep a few special bottles tucked away in the cellar should you feel like treating yourself. Stocks are limited and we always try and offer a range of styles from some of the world's best producers. They all have a bit of bottle age and are sitting nicely in their drinking windows.

WHITE WINE

- | | Bottle |
|--|---------------|
| 70. Chateau Beauregard Ducasse Blanc 2019 Bordeaux, France 13% abv
A lovely blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon with a touch of oak. The Sauvignon brings lovely fresh green fruited flavours, and the Semillon adds richness, texture and honeyed notes. The oak adds weight and a faint smoky note. A delight with shellfish | £51.00 |
| 71. Riesling Spatlese Troken Sybille Kuntz 2015 Mosel, Germany 12.5% abv
The grapes for Sybille's Spatlese (Late Harvest) are, as the name suggests, picked late in the harvest when they are fully ripe. They come from the Kuntz's best vineyards on the steep slopes of the Niederberg-Helden. The grape's long ripening phase ensures the wines aromas are fine and complex. A Riesling hardly to be topped in terms of density and expression. A dry and truly exquisite wine.

A firm staff favourite, Peter recommends having it with the duck. | £59.95 |
| 72. Chablis 1er Cru 'Montmains' Jean Collet 2019 Chablis, Burgundy, France 12.5% abv
Classic wine from one of France's most famous vineyard areas. Collet's Montmains is a fat and structured wine with floral notes, vibrant citrus and fresh oyster shells. It is delicious with fresh fish and white meats. | £76.95 |

Chateau Moulin Haut Laroque, owned by Thomas Herve, is one of Fronsac's leading estates. There is a graphite freshness from the Cabernet Franc behind the ripe blackcurrant fruit. The wine has ripe tannins and a silky texture which is complemented by tobacco and leather aromas. | £56.95 |
| 74. Barbera 'Monleale' Walter Massa 2012 Piedmont, Italy 15% abv
Walter Massa is the king of Barbera in Northern Italy. He likes to age it, so it has complex balsamic and wild red fruit aromas. Great with game dishes. | £63.00 |
| 75. Meerlust Rubicon 2017 Stellenbosch, South Africa 14% abv
This might be one of the world's last wine bargains. Prices of fine wines have rocketed over the years but not so much in South Africa. Meerlust produce one of South Africa's finest Bordeaux blends in Rubicon. Elegant, big, complex and well-priced. Try with steak and lamb. | £69.00 |
| 76. Chateau Musar 2016 Bekka Valley, Lebanon 13.5%

AROMATIC, HERBACEOUS, ZESTY WHITES

Again, these four whites are all unoaked and towards the lighter end of the scale but benefit from a zestier character, more intense aromatic qualities and more mineral/tangy acidity. We start to see more green fruit flavours which makes them perfect with fish dishes, Albarino with shellfish. The dry Gruner Veltliner from Ingrid Groiss is worth a special mention and is well worth trying!
